ALL ABOUT SHOES!

Gentlemen are Requested not to Read this

We do not boast of Auction Shoes
At shillings six a pair,
For sure no lady would them choose
That wants a shoe to wear.

Now very much we feel inclin'd
Such Gaiters to expose,
They are not good, and you will find
Them bursting round the toes.

Such ill made Shoes you could not wear
We often with them meet;
Just made to sell, they rip and tear
When walking in the street.

A lady passing by one day
Was caused a deal of trouble,
Superbly dress'd in garments gay
And Shoes not worth a bubble.

New pair of Shoes, and good ones too,
As the dear lady thought,
Until her feet protruding though
Proclaimed them good for naught.

We pay the prices for our work
To have it honest made,
To worthy men who are in truth
The masters of their trade.

And we can boast of extra nice
Of beautiful and neat,
Of fairy shoes at fairest price
To decorate the feet.

The Crusader's Song to the Hebrew Maiden.

BY MRS. CRAWFORD.

Hebrew maiden, veil thy beauty,
Lest my heart a rebel prove,
Breaking bands of holy duty,
For the silken chains of love.
Look not on me, sweet deceiver,
Though thy young eyes beam with light,
They might tempt a true believer
To the darkest shades of night.

Hebrew maiden, while I linger,
Hanging o'er thy melting lute,
Every chord beneath thy finger
Wakes a pulse that should be mute.
We must part, and part forever;
Eyes that could my life renew!
Lips that mine could cling to ever!
Hebrew maiden, now adieu!

THE HEBREW MAIDEN'S ANSWER.

Christian soldier, must we sever?
Does thy creed our fates divide?
Must we part, and part forever?
Shall another be thy bride?
Spirits of my fathers sleeping;
Ye, who once in Zion trod,
Heaven's mysterious council keeping,
Tell me of the Christian's God!

Is the Cross of Christ the token
Of a saving faith to man?
Can my early vows be broken?
Spirits answer me! They can.
Mercy—mercy shone about him—
All the blessed with him trod;
We can ne'er be saved without him!
Christian, I believe thy God!

A Gigantic Telegraph Enterprise.

On the 1st of March, the first line of electric telegraph in the Island of Porto Rico was inaugurated at Arroyo, under the direction of Prof. Morse. The authorities of the town gave him a public breakfast, at which there were present a large number of civil, clerical and military dignitaries. In replying to the toast in his honor, Prof Morse announced that an extended line of telegraphic communication was projected by a powerful company. The route, he said, would be as follows: Starting from the European coast at Cape St. Vincent, in Portugal, a submarine cable of 480 miles would be run to Madeira; thence to Palma, in the Canaries, 240 miles; thence to San Luis, on the coast of Africa, 780 miles; thence to Boniata, in the Cape de Verdes, 370 miles thence to the Island of San Pedro, 900 miles, the longest section of submarine cable that would be required on the whole route; thence to Cape San Roque, in Brazil, 180 miles. Having arrived on the coasts of America, a submerged cable of 500 miles along the coast would reach San Luis; from there another cable of 680 miles, crossing the mouth of the Amazon, would reach Cayenne, in French Guiana; from there 210 miles, to Surinam; thence 180 miles, to Demarara; thence 375 miles, to Barbadoes; thence to Martinique, 125 miles, thence to St Thomas, 450 miles; thence to San Juan de Porto Rico, 105 miles; thence to Jamaica, 570 miles; thence to Havana, 390 miles; thence to Florida, 160 miles, there connecting with the great net-work of telegraph which extends all over the face of the United States and Canada, and including in the whole extent of the line, from Cape St. Vincent to Florida, 7000 miles of the cable. "This great enterprise," said Prof Morse, "is under the direction of persons who enjoy the highest reputation, and who are distinguished for their propity, honor, ability, experience, perseverance, and pecuniary power. Among the most prominent among them are my friends H. J. Perry, Esq., late Secretary of the United States Legation in Madrid; Sir James Carmichael, Bart. London: and John W. Brett, Esq. the father of the European Submarine Telegraph. I confidently hope that this work will be accomplished within three years, and that these beautiful islands will be telegraphically communicated with the rest of the world."

GOOD RESOLUTIONS.—Resolved, Never to do anything out of revenge.

Resolve, Never to suffer the least emotion of anger to irrational beings.

Resolve, Never to lose one moment of time but to improve it in the most profitable way I possibly can.

Resolved, To live with all your might while you do live.

Resolve, To live at all times as you think best to your most devout friends and then you have the clearest notion of the Gospel and another world.

Resolve, Never to do anything which, if you should see in another, you should account a just occasion to despise him for or to think any way the more meanly of him.

Resolve, Never to speak in narration anything but the poor and simple verity.

Resolve, Never to speak ill of any person except some particular good call for it.

The Bride of a Week Returns After a Twelve Years' Absence.

We have been requested to suppress the names in the following curious history, which has recently transpired, or rather the last chapter of which recently occurred in this country. A farmer's son, twelve years ago, married a neighboring girl—the daughter of a very respectable family. They removed immediately to a distant place, where they had been living out a few days when, upon his return home one evening, the wife of a week was missing. She did not return that night, during which he felt of course, the utmost anxiety, and in the morning, he started in search of her. He could only learn that she had taken the stage alone, which led to a railroad station some miles distant. He followed, but at the depot lost all traces of her. He wrote to her former home, and published notices in the newspapers, but could obtain no clue to her whereabouts. He grieved in loneliness at her supposed criminal act, and to escape the scene where his week of unsullied happiness had been followed by so great a grief, he removed to this then sparsely settled wilderness. He here settled upon a promising piece of land, and its cultivation, and the cares of life, sought forgetfulness of the past. He succeeded measureably, has filled offices of trust, and grown wealthy. After a few years, his home requiring attention he married, but his wife lived only long enough to bear him a son, and witness the first year of the little one's existence.

A few weeks since, as the well-to-do man of the world was sitting by his own fireside, there entered the house a woman well clad, of fuller form, and twelve years older, but the picture of the long lost bride of a week, and she was accompanied by a girl of near a dozen years.

The sober man of forty was startled, but asked the strange visitor to be seated. Then came her long and agonizing story. All was oblivious to her for the first ten years of their separation. She could tell nothing, except of one hour of returned reason, when the little girl beside her, his daughter, was brought into the world.—After that time, fitfully and at periods remote from each other, came back reason and memory. She had wandered to a distant city, in a state of mild insanity; there she fell among some kind people, and was installed in an insane asylum.—After the birth of the daughter and ten years more spent within the walls thoughts of her youth, her home and husband came back. She slowly recovered, then visited her parents, learned where her husband was, and flew to him. Be sure he clasped her in his arms, and they wept upon each other's necks. Again going before the altar, they were united, and she now presides with careful dignity and ease over his household.

But little is said about it in the neighborhood, except expressions of wonder at Squire D.'s sudden and unexpected marriage to one whom they suppose to be a fair widow with whom he had recently become acquainted.—Madison (Wis.) Argus.

☞ I am inclined to think that if our minds were capable of apprehending the essential facts of the life we see, we should be convinced that our happiness is one of the most evenly distributed of all human possessions. The laborer loves his wife and children as well as the Lord, and takes into his soul all the tender and precious influences that flow to him through their love as well as he. Food tastes as sweetly to the ploughman as the placeman. If the latter have the daintier dish, the former has the keener appetite. Into all ears the brook pours the same stream of music, and the birds never vary their programme with reference to their audiences. The spring scatters violets broadcast, and grass grows by the roadside as well as in the park. The breeze that tosses the curls of your little ones and mine is not softer in its carresses of those who bound over velvet to meet it. The sun shines, the rains fall, the trees dress themselves in green, the thunder rolls and the stars flash for all alike. Health knows nothing of human distinctions, and abides with him who treats it best. Sleep the gentle angel, does not come at the call of power, and never proffers its ministry for gold. The senses take no bribes of luxury; but deal as honestly and generously by the poor as by the rich; and the President of the United States would whistle himself blind before he could call our dog from us.—Timothy Titcomb.

☞ The proprietor of a circus went into the office of the Troy Times, on Saturday last, for the purpose of teaching the editor of that paper the proprieties of journalism, and the editor in return for his kindness, knocked him down and choked him until he was content to make an inglorious retreat from the office.

☞ A wag says that in journeying lately, he was put into an omnibus with a dozen persons, of whom he didn't know a single one. Turning a corner shortly after, however, the omnibus upset, 'and then,' said he, 'I found them all out.'

Adam and the Cherub of Paradise.

As Abel lay in his blood, and wept, there came the cherub of Paradise to the father of the human race and stood silently by his side, and his countenance was mournful and sad, but Adam raised his head and said—

'Is this the type of the race that shall spring from me? And shall ever the blood of brethern, shed by the hand of brethern, stain the earth?"

"The Cherub answered, 'Thou say'st!"

"Ah! by what name shall men call this terrible deed?' said Adam.

With a tear in his eye, the heavenly visitant answered, 'WAR!' Then shuddered the father of mankind, as he sighed and said, 'Ah! why must then the noble-hearted and the good fall by the hand of the unjust?"

The Cherub was silent!

But Adam, still more sorrowfully, mourned, and said, 'What consolation now remains for me, in my lamentation for the blood stained earth?"

The Cherub answered, 'Thy glance towards heaven? He vanished.

Adam stood until the sunset, and as the stars shot up into the sky, he stretched his arms upwards towards Orion and the Wain, and exclaimed—'O, ye glistening watchers at the portals of heaven, why walk ye so silently? If it be permitted for man to hear the sound of your voice. O tell of the silent land above, and of Abel, my loved one.'

Yet it was more silent than ever all around him; and Adam cast himself upon his face and adored—and then rushed in his soul a gentle whisper,—'Lo, Abel, thy son, liveth!'

Then went he forth in truthful hope, and his soul was calm, and full of mournful joy.

Terrible Retribution.

A correspondent of the New York Post, writing from the gold region, gives a more fearful picture of affairs there than we have previously seen. He writes: It lends a finish to the drama to know that the victims of the Pike's Peak delusion are assuming the office of the avenging Nemesis—that they have shot and hung some of the most unscrupulous of the perpetrators, and that they are in a fair way to receive their deserts.

The postmaster at Denver City was accused, tried for and convicted of tampering with the mails, of opening letters, and distributing false reports purporting to be from the miners, to their eastern friends. A father was astonished by the arrival of his son, to whom he had written a true statement of the poverty of the miner, and his own intentions of returning at the earliest opportunity. Upon inquiring the cause of his starting, the son showed him a letter purporting to be from himself and instructing him to make arrangements to leave immediately for Denver City. The disguised handwriting was proved to be the postmaster's, and the father charging him with the deed, he confessed its truth, and was shot dead on the spot. Husbands and wives, parents and children, friends and acquaintances, met at the mines, or were confronted by the returning trains, all of whom had been deluded by these fraudulent and criminal misrepresentations.

WHEELING ONE'S SELF.—Going to dinner the other day, we saw a little fellow about two years old, sitting in a wheelbarrow and trying to wheel himself. It struck us that many people in this world are often caught in the same act, and we shall think hereafter:—When we see a business man trusting everything to his clerks, and yet expecting to get along—he's sitting in a wheelbarrow and trying to wheel himself. When we see a professional man better acquainted with everything else than his profession, always starting some new scheme, and never attending to his calling, his wardrobe and credit will soon designate him as sitting in a wheelbarrow and trying to wheel himself. When we see a farmer with an over abundance of "hired help" trusting everything to their management, his fences down, implements out of repair, and land suffering for want of proper tillage—too proud or too lazy to take off his coat and go to work—he's sitting in a wheelbarrow and trying to wheel himself.

☞ An old darkey was endeavoring to explain his unfortunate condition:

"You see," remarked Sambo, "it was in dis way, as far as I remember. Fust my fader died, and den my mudder married again, and den my mudder died, and my fadder married again, and somehow, I doesn't seem to have no parents at all, no home, nor nuffin.

☞ When one sin is admitted, it is generally found that it has a companion waiting at the door, and the former will work hard for the admission of the latter.

☞ To check passion by passion, and anger by anger, is to lay down one demon and raise up another.

☞ A little girl had been attacked with a severe pain in the head, which ended in blindness. She was taken to an eminent occulist, who pronounced her incurable. She wished to know what the doctor had said about her state, and her mother told her. "What, mother!" exclaimed the child, "am I never more to see the sun, nor the beautiful fields, nor you, my dear mother, nor my father?—O? how shall I bear it!" She wrung her hands, and wept bitterly. Nothing seemed to yield her the slightest comfort till her mother, taking a pocket Bible from the table, placed it in her hands. "What is this, mother?" inquired the disconsolate little girl. "It is the Bible, my child." Immediately a score of its most consolatory passages presented themselves to her mind. She paused, turned her poor, benighted eyeballs toward the ceiling, while an ngelic expression played on her countenance, and then as if filled with the Holy Spirit, breathed forth in an impassioned, but scarcely audible whisper—"Thy will be done on earth as it is done in Heaven!"

☞ A professor in a certain college was expaciating to a pupil on the merits of Latin, with a cited specimen. "You will observe from the word," said the professor, "the flexibility of the Latin language. "Pater" is a father, and here we have "Patrus an uncle on the father's side, and "Propatrus" means a great uncle on the father's side. Can you make any such change in our language? Pater, Parrunus, Propatrunus—is there any way you can change father into uncle in English? I don't think of any," replied the hopeful young philogist, "unless you can get him to marry your aunt!" That professor has not been heard of since.

A HANDY ARTICLE.—Adam Slonaker, a number of years ago, came to Huntingdon Furnace, and seeing there, for the first time, a pair of snuffers, asked:

"What's them fur?"

"To snuff the candle."

"To snuff the candle?"

The candle just then needed attention, and Adam, with his thumb and finger, pinched off the snuff, and carefully poked it into the snuffers, saying:

"Well, now, them is handy."

☞ Many fold their hands in petition when they ought to be using them in toil. They never learn that a useful, toiling life may be a perpetual prayer, as it is a perpetual hymn.

"THAT's part of the sinking fund," as a chap said when a box of money went to the bottom of the river.

☞ It is useless to recommend to people a course which they have not judgment to pursue.

Foreign News.

The Steamer City of Washington, from Liverpool, with advices to the 25th ult., arrived at St. John's, N. S., on the 4th inst. She brings important intelligence, and answers in the affirmative the all important question "any battle yet?"—The first battle between the hostile armies on the plains of Italy was fought on the 21st ult., at Montebello, and the Austrians routed. The Austrian army numbered 15,000 men, under Gen. Stadion. The Allies numbered 6,000 or 7,000 French and a regiment of Sardinians, under Gen. Forey. The battle lasted four hours. The loss of the Austrians is said to be 1,500 or 2,000 and that of the French 600 or 700, many of whom were officers. Two hundred Austrians were taken prisoners.

A revolutionary movement is reported in Lombardy. The King of Naples is dead and Francis the second has assumed the reins of government.

Additional news by the City of Washington states that the London Times disparages the battle of Montebello, calling it a tenth-rate victory, and accuses Napoleon with having sold himself to the demon of military conquest.

Kossuth, in a speech in favor of the neutrality of England, intimated that he would probably soon be in Hungary. He is reported to be President of the Hungarian committee at Genoa to encourage deserters from the Austrian Army.

The accounts from Hungary are seriously alarming. There must sooner or later be disturbance, if concessions are not made. The country is full of Russian agents who act almost openly.

A Flourishing City.—Denver City, Kansas, is a log city, containing about 100 log cabins. Corner lots range in price from $50 to $500. The inhabitants are Indians, Mexicans and white people—about equally divided—all hard cases, drinking and fighting all the while—some one killed every week—now and then one hung. So says a Pike's Peaker, and his description is like that of "John Phœnix's," speaking of San Diego, California: "All night long, in the sweet little village may be heard the soft note of the pistol, the pleasant shriek of the victim," &c.

Good for the Methodists.—The Rev. Wm. Butt, who preached freedom in Kansas through all the troubles, and was persecuted by the Border Ruffians for his Free State sentiments, has been transferred to the Arkansas Conference, and appointed Presiding Elder of the Texas district. Notwithstanding their persecution at the hands of Pro-Slavery Ruffians in Texas, there appears to be no back down on the part of the Methodists. We admire their spirit in a righteous cause.

Fast Time.—A great trial of speed between Ethan Allen and Flora Temple, the two fastest nags in this country, took place on the Fashion Course, Long Island, a few days since, for a purse of $2,000.—Mile heats, best three in five, to wagons. It was won by Flora in three straight heats. Time 2,25, 2,27½, 2,27½. The first heat is the best trotting, to wagons, on record.

☞ The returns of the Election in Virginia are still incomplete. Mr. Letcher's friends claim that his majority will exceed 6,000, while his opponents say it will not reach 5,000. So far 74 Democrats and 48 opposition members have been elected to the House of Delegates.

McLean and Johnston.—A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Journal is out in an article commending the nomination of Judge McLean, of Ohio, for the Presidency, and Hon. W. F. Johnston of this State for Vice President.

Sons of Temperance.

The National Division of the Sons of Temperance met in Philadelphia last week. The city papers say that it was the most numerous ever yet held, over one hundred members being in attendance. Twenty-six Grand Divisions of States and Provinces are represented, among them Canada West, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia. A Grand Division has also been organized at a late date in Washington territory. The Most Worthy Patriarch, B. D. Townsend, Esq., of South Carolina, read a very able and eloquent report, in which he reviewed the present and future elements of the Order, in connection with a brief but comprehensive history of the past. One thousand copies were ordered to be printed. The Most Worthy Scribe and Most Worthy Treasurer read full and satisfactory reports. The report of the Most Worthy Scribe shows a gain of ten thousand members during 1858, and that the state of the Order is in a most healthful and cheering condition. He further suggested plans of effort for the still greater increase and usefulness of the Order.

The Pennsylvania State Temperance Society gave the members of the National Division a public reception at the Academy of Music, Thursday evening last.—The affair is said to be the finest of the kind ever seen in the city. Speeches were made by the M. W. P. of the National Division, Gen. Carey of Ohio, and others.

The Frost.—From all parts of the country we receive intelligence of the disastrous consequences of the frost on Saturday night last. Telegraphic reports from New York Ohio, Indiana and Illinois state that much injury has been done to the fruit crop if it is not entirely killed. The grain crop it is feared is also badly injured. We hope, however, that the latter may not prove to be well founded.

Exciting Race—Stakes $275,000.

The Cleveland Leader tells a sory of an exciting race, in which the steeds were iron horses and the stakes greater than have ever been known on any track. One day last week, as the Eastward bound Express train reached Laport, Indiana, a passenger stepped off while the engine was being replenished with wood and water, and walked back and forth on the platform, and continued to walk until after the whistle sounded and the train had left. Being shortly after addressed by a station man, he aroused himself what was in reality a walking sleep, ascertained he had been left, and declaring it a question of life and death, called for an extra engine. Fortunately one was at hand—the bargain was soon settled—a draft given on New York for $250, and in ten minutes the trave er started with an engine to overtake the flying express. After rushing on for thirty or forty miles, some connection gave way about the engine. The engine was stopped—the engineer found the difficulty, and in a few minutes had a wooden pin whittled out and fitted to supply the dificiency. With this, on they flew. The train had of course many miles the start of them, and despite the wooden pin the engineer crowded on steam and tore through the country at a fearful rate. Thirty miles of the distance passed was run in twenty-seven minutes, but the engagement was that they should overtake the train, and do it they must, and do it they did, but not until more than one hundred miles had been run and they were approaching Toledo. Having at length overtaken and stopped the train and hurried on board, the traveler went eagerly to a berth in the sleeping car, and took therefrom a carpet bag containing $275,000. His treasure was safe—none had molested it, and dismissing his faithful courier, he went on his way rejoicing at the success of his perilous and exciting adventure.

☞ We copy the following melancholy item from the last number of the Huntingdon American, and deeply sympathise with the parents and relations of the bright little boy, so suddenly snatched from their embrace. He was the only son of the parents, and the idol of his grandparents, with whom he resided a greater portion of the time:—

Drowned—On Sunday afternoon last, John McCollum, son of Rev. E McCollum, aged about three years, was drowned in the canal, in this borough. The child, it seems was on the bank of the canal, immediately in the rear of the residence of Mr. John Hildebrand, and by some means slipped into the water. He was seen on the bank about half-past three o'clock, by some person passing, and it is presumed he must have got in soon after, as he was missed from home, and search was immediately made. He was taken from the water about five o'clock, several hundred yards below the place he was last seen. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but too late, the vital spark had fled. We sympathize deeply with the bereaved parents and relatives, in their sudden loss of a dear child. We were present when the corpse was taken home, and we hope that we may never again be compelled to witness such anguish as we beheld on this occasion.

A Strong Man Overcome.—Dr. George B. Winship, of Boston, supposed to be the strongest man in the world, attempted to deliver a lecture on physical education, illustrated by feats of strength on Monday night, but on account of excitement swooned thrice, and was obliged to desist.

Dr. Winship has for several years given much attention to the subject of physical education. He is 25 years of age, five feet seven inches in height, and weighs 143 pounds. He graduated at Cambridge, five years ago. He can raise a barrel of flour from the floor on his shoulder, can raise himself with either little finger, till his chin is a half a foot above it; can raise 200 pounds with either little finger; can put up a dumb bell of 141 pounds; exercises daily with two dumb bells weighing 100 pounds each, which he can raise alternately above his head, can lift with the hands 926 pounds dead weight, without the aid of straps or belts of any kind. Topham, the strongest man in England, could only raise 800 pounds in the same way, and the celebrated Belgian giant could lift only 800.—Dr. Winship was prepared to exhibit all these feats, but the unexpected turn which events took prevented it. The strong man proved to be an infant.

☞ We learn from New Orleans that the yellow fever has made its appearance there. The first cases were developed two weeks ago, and now there are about four or five cases per day.

☞ The Huntingdon American, of last week, says that a gentleman of that place caught a trout, at the Dam above that place, which measured 2 feet 5 inches in length, and weighed 8 pounds 4 oz.

☞ Down on Lager.—The Pittsburgh Synod of the Lutheran church, the session of which closed last week, passed ressolutions by a decisive vote denouncing the use of lager beer and fermented cider.

☞ Mrs. Partingdon says that, just before the last war with England, "circumstances were seen around the moon nightly, shooting stars perambulated the earth, the desk of the sun was covered with dark spots of ink, and comments swept the horizon with their operic tails. Everybody said it prefigated war, and sure enough it did come. Its costiveness was felt throughout the land, but the bravery of General Jackson expiated the American citizens, and foreign dominoes soon become a byeword."

☞ Col. Fuller, of New York, learned, while on a visit to the Bank of England, that "not a single piece of American paper which laid over during the late panic, now remains unpaid."—This, says Mr. Elsey, the Governor, cannot be said of any other nation on the earth!"

☞ The cost of the Utah army up to the end of the second quarter was over $5,000,000, and add to that the estimate of the fiscal year ending June 1, and the expense of that army for one year will range between seven and nine millions.

☞ Mrs. Swisshelm, in her letters to young ladies, says that "every country girl knows how to color red with madder." This we believe to be an ethnological fact, as we have always noticed that with all girls the madder they get the redder they are.

☞ Hoop, Hoop, Hurrah!—A still later invention is the non-expanso-expansive-last-forever-let-in-or-out-six-foot-in-diameter-never-bend-or-break-and-sit-down-as-much-as-you-please-without-injuring-a-spring-hoop-skirt.—Those ladies who have worn them state positively that they are perfect darlings.

☞ "That motion is out of order," remarked the chairman of a political meeting to a rowdy who was raising his arm to throw a rotten egg at him. We presume it was "not debatable" either if the rowdy had any serious notions of "adding amendments" of the same character.

☞ Fanny Fern says she once had a narrow escape from being a ministers wife, and tells how she would have acted in such a case. An exchange in commenting on the matter says, that if she had made a narrower escape than the minister, it was fearful to contemplate indeed!

Shocking Infanticide.—Johnstown has been the scene of another infanticide. A few days ago the body of a child was found in the canal basin at that place. It was cut up in pieces and stowed away in a crock. There can be no doubt that the child was murdered, but by whom is a mystery.

☞ A Correspondent, in describing the Artesian well near Louisville, Ky., says it is two hundred feet deep, and throws up a jet of one hundred feet in height. From the taste and smell of the water, I should judge that in boring they had tapped the main sewer of his Satanic majesty's dominions.

☞ An old lady on being witnessed before a magistrate as to her place of legal settlement, was asked what reason she had for supposing that her husband had a legal settlement in that town. The old lady said: "He was born and married, and they buried him here, and if that ain't settling him here, I don't know what is."

☞ Thirty-three Stars must be on the National flag from and after the 4th of July next. This is in compliance with the Act of Congress, passed April 1848, which declares that, on the admission of every new State, one star shall be added, and that each addition shall take place on the 4th of July next succeeding such admission.

☞ "The dirty little snipes!" exclaimed a lady on the street, to another, "'not dry behind the ears yet!'" (an elegant expression,) "and insulting females as they pass!" She referred to the conduct of the ill-mannered youths who congregate on the streets and exhibit some deplorable traits of character. An occasionable canning would do them no harm.

Distressing Occurrence.—On the 2d inst., at Pottsville, Pa., a vivid flash of lightning and deafening peal of thunder so alamed the wife of Mr. George W. Potts, coal operator, while standing at her door, that it induced a fatal attack of heart disease. She fell back and died in a few moments. She was a niece of Hon. George M. Dallas, and a daughter of the late Trevanion B. Dallas, of Pittsburgh.

A little glove stirs up my heart as tides stir up the ocean.
And snow-white muslin, when it fits, wakes many a curious notion;
All sorts of lady fixings thrill my feelings, as they'd orter,
But little female gaiter-boots are death, and nothing shorter!

And the very kind of "little female gaiter-boots," to stir up men's hearts, can be had at the Peoples' Cheap Shoe Store, over the way.

☞ Here is a bit of caution well worth being pasted into one's hat, where it may be daily seen:

"If you your lips
Would keep from slips,
Five things observe with care—
Of whom you speak,
To whom you speak,
And how, and when and where."

☞ At one of the ministerial conferences, in Boston last week, a speaker expressed his regret that some organization was not in existence to stop radical ministers who went about the country breaking up parishes. A clergyman from the rural districts replied, that he hoped when the official knife was sharpened against heresy, it would be applied with equal force against stupidity, as he thought stupid preachers were breaking down as many societies as heretics were breaking up.

Alexander the Great seeing Diogenes looking attentively at a large collection of human bones piled one upon another, asked the philosopher what he was looking for. "I am searching," said Diogenes, "for the bones of your father, but I can not distinguish them from those of his slaves." Reader, can you find the point in this reply.

One of the most telling descriptions of "forlornity" we have heard, was that of a boy who asked a Boston police officer for shelter in the Station House: "See, Cap'n, first my father died, and my mother married again, and then my mother died and my father married again, and somehow or other I don't seem to have no parents at all, nor no home, nor no nothing."

The Austrian government has had under discussion an edict that no Christian should be allowed to remain in the service of a Jew.—Whereupon the Jews resolved that if this edict passed no Jew should discount Austrian paper. This was more than Austria expected. She therefore discarded the exclusive idea on her part, to enjoy the coveted privilege of still borrowing money from the Jews. Mammon forever!

☞ Philadelphia is importing its entire summer supply of ice from Boston. The past winter was so mild that a bare thousand tons were all that dealers were able to secure, and this has long since been used up. Dealers have now entered into a compact league to put up the price to a uniform notch of some twenty per cent, above last year's prices. Wholesale consumers are now charged half a dollar a bushel, being an advance of seventy per cent. over the previous year.

☞ A Mixed Petition.—A correspondent of the Knickerbocker, has been describing to the editor of that Journal, a "hundred-fisted nightmare," which haunts him in the shape of Rail Road posters. Wherever he goes he sees nothing but Illinois Central Railroad, Michigan Central, Chicago and Alton, New York and Erie, Pennsylvania Central, &c., &c., staring in large capitals, until they have become mixed in with his common thoughts;—and the other evening, as he went to sleep he muttered, in a half somniferous jumble:

"Now lay me down the 'Broad Gauge, to sleep,
I pray 'Great Western Route' to keep,
If the 'Central' busts before I wake,
I pray the 'Air Line' my trunk to take!"

Morphy Trapped—Almost.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Mercury, in a notice of Morphy, the great chess-player, says:—A queer incident occurred to him soon after his arrival in New York. A carriage drove to the St. Nicholas, in which was seated a handsomely-dressed lady. She sent up a card, and requested an interview with the chess champion. The interview was granted, when the fair visitor demanded the privilege of playing a game with Mr. Morphy. Mr. M. looked at the magnificent eyes of the stranger, and said, "Yes, certainly." The chess-table was brought to the window, and Mr. Morphy placed the men. The lady, of course, was permitted the first move. Half a dozen moves were made on either side, and Morphy found himself interested—the visitor promised to prove the most formidable antagonist he had had for a long time. Being absorbed in the game, Morphy directed the servant to admit no one else until it was completed. The game lasted two hours, and was drawn. The lady was then satisfied, and blushingly took her leave, Morphy himself accompanying her to her carriage. The moment she had gone, Morphy and his friends set at work to ascertain the identity of the beautiful visitor, not doubting that the name upon her card could be found in the directory. This, however, proved to be a mistake, and though every endeavor was made to ascertain precisely who was the visitor, the gentlemen are as much in the dark as ever. Whoever she may be, she played the best game in which Morphy was ever a contestant, and probably adopted those means of matching herself with Morphy in order to assure herself of her own skill.

How Pigeons are Caught.

It is estimated that $20,000 worth of wild pigeons are caught in Essex county, Mass., every season. As they sell for about $1, a dozen, this makes the number caught about a quarter of a million. The pigeons are attracted to particular parts of the woods by the strewing of grain in open spaces, cleared of the brush-wood for the purpose. In this way they are not only tolled around the spot where traps are to be set, and familiarized with the ground, but are well fattened before being taken. They are fed for some time previous to spreading the nets. When a sufficient number have congregated to make it worth while to entrap them, the grain is saturated with whiskey, which steals away their silly brains, as it does silly men's brains, and they become willing, stupefied victims of the trappers. The net is set in such a way that, by the use of young saplings for drawing springs, it is made to jump over the dense flock of fuddled pigeons gathered in front of it; and when they attempt to rise they are entangled in the meshes. The pigeons, we are told, when enticed by the grain and whiskey, will huddle together in a compact mass as if for the special convenience and gratification of the trapper.—When once caught in the net they are thrust through the meshes, and the trapper by a certain pressure upon the neck kills them one after another with great rapidity and with more dexterity of touch than tenderness of feeling."

The Champagne Bet—Gen. Scott.—An item has been "going the rounds" that Gen. Scott had offered to bet 500 bottles of champagne that Napoleon would never return to Paris. Herman Von Weidekeind explodes himself and the story in a letter to the New York Express, which runs as follows: "In regard to the bet said to have been made by Gen. Scott, an explanation will be necessary. I made the assertion that I would bet that Gen. S. would be willing to wager, &c. I am now willing to bet, on my own responsibility, any sum from 2500 francs to 20,000 francs that Louis Bonaparte will never return to Paris. I am a Baron of the Kingdom of Prussia, and Knight of the Iron Cross, de jure, but in consequence of having too freely expressed my opinions, am exiled. My estates are confiscated both in Prussia and in France. If Louis Napoleon was killed to-morrow I should be worth 1,000,000 francs."

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE COLLECTION.—The collection and subscription taken up in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning and evening last, for the purpose of paying off the debt now hanging over it, far exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine and hopeful of its friends. The amount that would be required to free the church having been stated, a collection and subscription amounting to $1,856 was taken up during the morning. In the evening a statement of the receipts of the morning was made and the effort renewed, and in a short time the amount run up to within a fraction of $2,300. Those persons who have heretofore signified their intention of contributing their mite toward liquidating this debt, but who were not present on Sunday, can yet have an opportunity to do so. Their contributions are needed, as there is still a small balance required to square off all accounts.

We doubt whether there is another town in the country in which so large a subscription could be taken up in one day for the same purpose. The liberality of the people of Altoona in contributing of their means to erect houses of worship, and all benevolent purposes, is proverbial, and we think this last effort places them still a degree higher in that scale.

On behalf of the Trustees we return thanks to those, not members of this church, who contributed so liberally of their means to secure so desirable a result.

The Trustees have appointed Rev. S. Creighton, D. T. Caldwell and John McClellan collectors to receive the money subscribed.

THE CENTRAL BANK.—During the latter part of last week, no little excitement was created in this place by the circulation of the report that the Central Bank had suspended. At first we did not feel inclined to credit the report, but a little inquiry served to convince us that it was only too true. The credit of this bank has never been very good either at home or abroad, although from representations made to us by parties who were acquainted with the present stockholders, we were led to believe that it was sound, and the scruples of the public without grounds. Why the bank should close its doors and refuse payments of its notes at a time when confidence in its responsibilities was about to be established, will require a very satisfactory explanation in order to convince the public that it is still sound. Let the explanation be what it may, it will require as many years of uninterrupted prosperity, as days have since intervened, before its notes will be again received as they have been heretofore.

The Hollidaysburg Register says that the "liabilities of the Bank cannot be very great, and the probabilities that they will be fully met are sufficient to render any sacrifices at the present time unwise." From the same paper we learn that the Bank opened its doors again on Tuesday morning and is now redeeming its paper in small amounts.

MEETING OF HONORABLE BODIES IN ALTOONA.—Although but ten years of age, Altoona has acquired a reputation as a place of note, of which older cities and towns might well feel proud. Do men wish to select a town in which to hold a meeting of an order scattered all over the country, in which they can be accommodated in a comfortable manner, view nature in all its loveliness, blend the romantic with the real, invigorate flagging energies by imbibing pure water fresh from mountain streams and be famed by the healthful breezes which float down from the Alleghanies—in fine—do they wish to enjoy all that nature and art supplies for their health and comfort, of course, Altoona is fixed upon. For this reason no doubt the Grand Encampment of Knight Templars have agreed to meet in this place on Wednesday, the 22d day of June, 1850, and for this reason we know the G. W. P. of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Pennsylvania has fixed upon this place for holding a session of the Grand Division, on Wednesday, the 27th day of July next.

BISHOP SIMPSON.—According to announcement, Bishop Simpson preached in the Methodist church in this place, on Sabbath morning last. Before the hour for opening services, the church was filled almost to overflowing, many persons from a distance being present. Bishop S. is considered one of the ablest ministers in this country, and we think rightly so. His sermon on Sunday morning gave evidence of a mind richly stored with scriptural knowledge and a heart filled with pure, experimental religion. The enfeebled state of his health prevented him from delivering himself in that animated manner which his feelings appeared to dictate, nevertheless, the effects of his remarks were plainly discernible upon the entire audience. That he may be restored to perfect health and his former usefulness in the church is the hope of all.

REGULAR HABITS.—The health of the human body depends in a great measure on habits of regularity and careful protection from the sudden changes of temperature incident to our climate. Wet feet or a sudden blast of cold, has produced an obstruction that has frequently laid the system under a contribution from which it has never recovered. These are the seeds which bring around a cough or cold, which, unless early and carefully attended to, end in consumption, from which few recover. The cough or cold is always cured by a bottle or two of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup and sometimes even the latter disease, but very rarely by anything. It will always ease the complaint however, and as it costs a mere trifle, it should be tried. It will surely never do any harm.—Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona.

LOGAN RIFLE RANGERS.—This company paraded the streets on Monday afternoon last, in summer uniform, and we were pleased to observe an increase in the number bearing rifles. We hope the military spirit of the members may be sufficiently revived to induce all of them to turn out on regular drill days, and give us a sight of the company as it appeared in former years.

SOMNAMBULISTIC PERSONATION.—A few nights since, a young man who stops at a boarding house on Emma street, in this place, arose about three o'clock in the morning, donned his pants, coat and hat, unlocked his bed-room door, stepped out and locked it behind him, proceeded down stairs and unlocked the outside door of the house, stepped out and likewise locked it behind him, and started in a tour of observation around the town. In which direction he traveled is not known, nor can he relate any incidents which occurred upon his way; all he knows about it is that at the time he awoke he was inspecting a pile of brick in the rear of the Superintendent's Office, about a square and a half from his boarding house.—Having neglected to put on boots or shoes, he says that the gravel hurt his feet awfully, and it was with difficulty, after he realized his whereabouts, that he succeeded in making his way back to the house.

CHOICE LIQUORS.—We are indebted to our friend, Billy Marriott, of Railroad View, for a bottle each of Cherry Brandy and old Port Wine, both of which have been pronounced by competent judges to be the genuine article.—Billy keeps none but the best of liquors, and those who wish anything in that line may rely upon getting it at his establishment.

Our neighbor over the way, Lewis Plack, served us a trick similar to that of our friend Billy, by presenting us with a couple of bottles of wine and brandy, as samples of the large stock which he has now on hand for sale, wholesale and retail. If people will drink liquor as a beverage, for their own sakes they should get a genuine article, and such may be had at either of the above establishments.

HONORED.—It affords us much pleasure to note that our worthy young friend, Cale Tipton, was, at the recent National Convention of the Junior Sons of America, which assembled in Washington City, elected President of that body, an honor not to be lightly esteemed when the number and respectability of the members of this order in the United States, is taken into consideration. Washington Camp, No. 64, J. S. of A., of Altoona, now numbers among its members the President of the National Convention, C. Tipton, and the President of the State Convention, D. T. Caldwell; a proty good evidence that Altoonians are popular abroad as well as at home.

THE PIC NIC.—Our suggestion last week, in reference to the getting up of a pic nic, to proceed to Spruce Creek, was immediately acted upon, and a sufficient number, we believe, to obtain an excursion, have consented to join the party. The day fixed upon is Wednesday next, 15th inst., the weather proving favorable. Those who wish to join the party should signify their intentions immediately to the proper persons, in order that they may receive further information in relation to the affair, and all necessary preparations for their accommodation may be made.

PARDONED.—We learn from the Hollidaysburg papers that the Governor has pardoned Geo. W. Dannals, convicted at the late Court of Quarter Sessions of keeping a gambling house, and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs. He was imprisoned for non-payment of the fine. The pardon releases him from the fine, but not from the costs. He was to give a "grand entertainment" last evening, in order to raise "the wind" to extinguish the costs incurred in the suit.

MILITARY ELECTION.—We have not received the complete returns of the election for field officers of this Brigade, held on Monday last, but enough has come to hand to warrant us in saying that Gen. B. F. Bell, has been re-elected Brig. General; J. C. Osterloh, Brig. Inspector; Col. Jacob Higgins, Colonel; Wm. Williams jr. Lieut. Colonel; J. R. McFarlane, Major. Capt. J. Szink was re-elected Captain of the Logan Rifle Rangers, and Capt. H. W. Snyder re-elected Captain of the Altoona Guards.

ANOTHER LAWYER.—We do not know that we are becoming more lawless than heretofore, or that we require another disciple of Blackstone in our midst to assist in setting our people by the ears, nevertheless we are to have such a personage in the person of Maj. J. D. Leet, of Hollidaysburg. He has rented the room known as the old Post office, next door to the Lutheran parsonage, where he has hung out his shingle, and announces himself ready to see a man "through" a difficulty after the modern style.

SADDLERY, &c.—Maj. Wehn informs the public in general, through our colums this week, that he has opened a shop on Virginia street, next door to J. & J. Lowther's store, where he will keep on hand a general assortment of work in his line, and will manufacture to order on short notice anything which may be called for. A shop of the kind has long been required in this place, and we hope the Major may be liberally patronized, feeling sure that he will be able to render satisfaction.

THE WEATHER.—On Saturday last we were visited by a spell of weather which would have done no discredit to the ides of November.—Linen coats vanished instanter, and overcoats and warm stoves were in demand. On Sunday morning there was a heavy frost, which it is feared has seriously injured, if not entirely destroyed the fruit and grain as well as garden vegetables in this vicinity.

ATTENTION.—Attention is requested to the advertisement of "Agents Wanted," by C. L. Derby & Co., which will be found in another column. Young men wishing to travel will find the books, for which canvassers are wanted, to be very popular, and might make a good thing out of an agency.

MCALISTERSVILLE ACADEMY.—We direct the attention of those having children they wish to send to an Academy to the advertisement of the above institution, in another column. Being well acquainted with the locality we can endorse all that is said of it in the circular of the institution.

POST OFFICE CHANGED.—The site of Antestown Post Office, in this county, has been changed to the railroad,—the present name retained. Gen. B. F. Bell has been appointed Post Master, Vice John Bell, superceded.

ASTONISHING.—Once, in the history of Altoona, let it be remembered that butter came down to 12½ cts. per lb. It is none of your common "ring, streaked and striped" stuff, but the genuine yellow clover article. For the first time in many years, butter has shipped from this place to Philadelphia. As we cannot expect to enjoy this abundance and low price very long, it would be well enough to put up a quantity for future use.

☞ We learn from the Register that one of the two horses belonging to Samuel Smith, of Scoth Valley, noticed some time since as having been poisoned, has since died, and the other is so much injured as to be worthless. A strict watch is now kept by farmers of that locality over their stock, and the villain who attempts anything of the kind again will most likely get a bullet for his trouble.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. John Chambers, of Philadelphia, will preach in the Presbyterian Church in this place, on Sunday next, at half-past 10 o'clock in the morning and at a quarter before 8 in the evening.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

WORMS! WORMS!

☞ A great many learned treatises have been written, explaining the origin of, and classifying the worms generated in the human system. Scarcely any topic of medical science has elicited more acute observation and profound research; and yet physicians are very much divided in opinion on the subject. It must be admitted, however, that, after all, a mode of expelling these worms, and purifying the body from their presence, is of more value than the wisest disquisitions as to the origin. The expelling agent has at length been found—Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros. is the much sought after specific, and has already superseded all other worm medicines its efficacy being universally acknowledged by medical practitioners.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

FITS! FITS! FITS!

Persons laboring under this distressing malady will find Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy ever discovered for curing Epilepsy or Falling Fits. These Pills possess a specific action on the nervous system; and although prepared especially for the purpose of curing Fits, they will be found of especial benefit to all persons afflicted with weak nerves, or whose nervous system has been prostrated or shattered from any cause whatever. The dyspeptic patient, whose stomach has not lost the power of duly converting food into a life sustaining element, is relieved by a single course of the extraordinary Pills. The gastric fluid re-acquires its solvent power, and the crude nutriment which was a load and a burden to the sufferer, while his digestive organization was paralyzed and unstrung, becomes under the wholesome revolution created in the system, the basis of strength, activity, and health.

Sent to any part of the country by mail, free of postage. Address Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. Price—one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $24.

It is an excellent medicine, when diluted, for spongy and tender gums, and is worth ten times its price to all who need it. Sold here by G. W. Kessler. [Dec. 9, 1858-1y.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boarhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful remedy has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boarhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, is freed of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdue inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality. This it does by equalizing the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflamation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Pits, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT, is no CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do---no more, no less---equalizes the circulation; by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TRIED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.---An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.

J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left. G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit. S. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR ANEURISM of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.

R. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over Inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD WRITE, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.
